

INTRODUCTION

The legislature began a 30-day Special Session on Monday, but Olympia remained mostly quiet. Budget negotiators continued to trade charges that the other side isn't serious. In order to emphasize this point, on Wednesday the Republican-led Senate Ways & Means Committee heard a bill that contains all of the tax increases that the House Democrats have indicated they want – in order to show that the proposal does not have very much support. At this rate, things are not likely to happen soon.

LEGISLATION PERTINENT TO PORTS

GOVERNANCE

Paid Family Leave. One area of policy that is being negotiated behind the scenes relates to paid family leave for employees. Earlier in the session two measures were introduced that create a mandatory paid family leave program for all workers in the state, paid for with a payroll tax and administered by the Employment Security Department. HB 1116 and SB 5032 were heard, but neither advanced out of its initial chamber. Labor groups who support the bills are now planning an Initiative for 2018 that creates this program. In an effort to forestall the Initiative, business groups and some legislators are seeing if a compromise can be found. Key issues such as the cost share of the payroll tax, thresholds for eligibility, and much more remain unresolved.

To provide a sense of the magnitude of this proposal, the Employment Security Department estimates that implementing the bills mentioned above would require 170

ADVOCACY

The Legislative Report is distributed each Friday throughout the legislative session. Each edition includes an update of legislative activities as well as a list of specific legislative meetings of interest to ports. Each report concludes with Bill Tracking, a section offering brief descriptions of proposed legislation and noting where that legislation is currently located in the bill process. For easy access, the bills are directly linked to their posting on the Legislature's website.

WPPA representatives Eric Johnson, James Thompson, Gerry O'Keefe, Chris Herman, and Elena Oguiza are following a wide-variety of issues throughout the session. If you have questions concerning legislative activities, please contact them at 360-943-0760 regarding any specific issues.
